1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

the applicant claims an image forming apparatus, a method of manufacturing or remodeling an image forming apparatus, and a method of evaluating a sound generated by an image forming apparatus that has a discomfort probability calculated according to a specific equation in which the equation must fulfill a specific condition or the applicant claims a method of evaluating a sound generated by an image forming apparatus including recording operational noise, preparing sample sounds from the noise, measuring psycho-acoustic parameters of the sample sounds, evaluating the sample sounds using a paired comparison method, carrying out a logistical regression analysis of the sample sounds, deriving a sound quality evaluation expression used to predict the noise discomfort level and evaluating the sound according to the evaluation expression which is not anticipated or rendered obvious by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Tsunoda et al., Wargo, Wong et al., Sasahara et al., Takahashi et al., Koike et al., and Fukumizu et al. all teach various noise suppression systems.
